VISION MARKETING STATEMENT

Adrian Chan's adventurous and vibrant spirit grew from his passion in music, film, car racing, and horse racing. Painting, drawing, and illustration are the medium of choice for his creative expression. His work allows him to constantly explore new ideas and techniques, inviting the viewers to experience his creation in diverse ways. He has an eye for details and design; he urges high standards in whatever work he undertakes.

He is aspired to become a Mercedes AMG race driver, to design a collection of car racing team-suit and gears including helmet, suit, gloves, and sneakers, and to have his paintings displayed at the Mercedes AMG GT3 Museum.

BIOGRAPHY

Adrian Chan was born and raised in Hong Kong, and became fascinated with painting at an early age. He attended Savannah College of Art and Design (SCAD) where he is pursuing a BFA in painting, illustration, and drawing, and will be graduating in June 2019.

Adrian's paintings were exhibited in Chengdu Art Exhibition that raises money for the aftermath of the Lushan earthquake in 2013. All 17 of his exhibited works were sold and all profits of the sales were donated to Sheen Lok Charitable Foundation. He is currently based in Hong Kong.
